

“INDIANS, COWBOYS, CORNERSTONES AND CHARITIES”

A Centennial celebration of Freemasonry in Oklahoma

A Limited production of the photographic History of Freemasonry in Oklahoma from the late 1800's through the present. Sharing in the narrative duties are W. : Jim Tresner and W. : Robert G. Davis. The Cornerstone section, pinned by M. : W. : Robert Shipe, whose research of the history of the tradition of laying Cornerstones in Oklahoma shines a new light on the places and buildings of an ancient Masonic tradition. The book is full of interesting stories, incredible photos, Lodge special events from our past, Famous Oklahoma Masons and so much more. There are over 600 photographs included. The book is a 9" X 12" Hardbound cloth cover edition with the exact slipcover shown above. Heavy 80# paper (200 pages) will be used to enhance the quality and longevity of the book. It will be a book the entire family will treasure for years to come.

Order Your Copy Today!

Priced at $35.00 plus $7.50 shipping/handling.

Order Form Please Print shipping information:

Name: _____ Street Address (no PO Boxes): _____
City, State Zip: _____ Mail your check to: Grand Lodge of Oklahoma, P.O. Box 1019,
Guthrie, OK 73044