Communications: Finding & Sharing Information

Communications are important for any organization, but especially for a Fraternity. Throughout the book, we have listed the E addresses of Lodges, Officers, and Organizations when that has been available. Additional information is given here.

The Grand Lodge Web Site gloklahoma.com

The web site is designed for both Masons and the general public. Information about Masonry, Lodge locations, Grand Lodge Officers, Oklahoma Masonic History, and much more can be found here, along with links to other informative sites.

E-mail Addresses

Okmason1@coxinet.net — <M.: W.: Bobby L. Laws, P.:G.:M.:>

This is the Grand Lodge E address and goes to the Grand Secretary's office. You can E-mail the Grand Secretary with questions, etc.

The Oklahoma Mason— <Jim Tresner ☿ >

jim.tresner@yahoo.com The Oklahoma Mason magazine, published electronically on the Grand Lodge web site, is the primary means of communication of the Grand Lodge of Oklahoma.

Yvette Story and Linda Derscheid — To reach Yvette, e-mail ystory@coxinet.net; to reach Linda, e-mail lindad1@coxinet.net

The Grand Lodge Museum and Library

The Museum and Library are major sources of Masonic information. Located in the Grand Lodge Building in Guthrie, they occupy more than 8,000 square feet of display and shelving space. The Museum contains paintings or photographs of all Oklahoma Past Grand Masters, artifacts from early Lodges, a collection of hand-painted aprons, some more than 200 years old, hand-painted glass lantern slides used to illustrate the lectures in the 1800's and early 1900's, displays on cornerstones, George Washington, the Oklahoma Masonic Indian Degree Team, artifacts from the War Between the States, Masonic medals, medallions, badges, rare Masonic china, and much more.

The library has 1,077 feet of shelving with more than 10,000 volumes on the history of Masonry, Masonic symbolism, proceedings of various Grand Jurisdictions, anti-Masonry, Masonic research papers, periodicals, and much more.

The James T. Tresner Masonic Learning Center

The Learning Center is being created on the lower floor of the Grand Lodge building. It will house Dr. Tresner's Masonic library and collection of books by Masonic authors, music by Masonic composers, DVDs, etc. Computers are available as are media players of various sorts. The Learning Center is open to Brethren now, and will be open to the public when it is completed.
