

The Order of the Sacred White Buffalo

Dear Masonic Family

I am pleased to announce the next annual POW-WOW for the Order of the Sacred White Buffalo is Saturday, August 19, 2023, at the Grand Lodge Building in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Our own world-renowned Oklahoma Masonic Indian Degree Team in full Native American dress will confer the degree. It is a most impressive remarkable sight.

As you may have heard, the Order of the Sacred White Buffalo is an organization with two purposes: to recognize and honor the importance of the Native American tradition in Oklahoma Freemasonry and to support the Grand Lodge Endowed Building Fund. The White Buffalo is a symbol of special recognition to our Native American Brethren. It was a symbol of deliverance in time of need--of the special connection between man and nature.

Eligibility and Membership

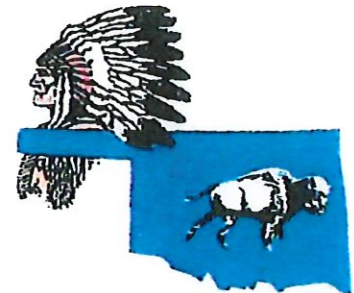

To be eligible for membership, the applicant must be a Master Mason, a member of a Master Mason's family, or a member of an Affiliated, Appendant, or other Masonic body in good standing. The Initiation Fee of $100 and first-year's dues of $50 ($150 total) must accompany the application. Thereafter, dues are $50 annually. Both husband and wife and children over 14 years of age may join.

Your dues cover the cost of the meal at the meeting when you join. Meals at following meetings will be at your expense.

Perpetual Memberships are available after you complete your degree for $500. (10X $50 dues). This is another effective way for us to support Oklahoma Masonry and maintain our beautiful Grand Lodge Building that houses a big part of our history.

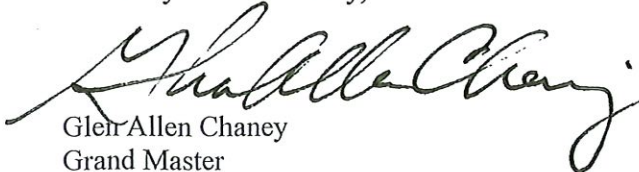

Memorial Memberships are available for a one-time cost of $50. It is an effective way to honor deceased brethren or their spouses. The person purchasing the Memorial Membership will receive a certificate that may be displayed in the lodge or given to the brother's family.

Your next opportunity to join the Order of the Sacred White Buffalo will be Saturday, August 19, 2023, at the Grand Lodge building at Guthrie. Registration will start at 10:00 AM with a meal at noon. The charge for the meal for members will be $20. The degree will start at 1:15 PM. Dress is casual, but please, no shorts or flip flops. Applications are due at Grand Lodge no later than July 30, 2023. Walk-ins are accepted, but meals may not be available without prior registration.

See the attached form and call or e-mail the Grand Lodge if you would like more information.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Glen Allen Chaney
Grand Master
